Hands-on training session under Paramparagat Krishi Vikas Yojana

Empowering Rural Farmers through Value Addition: A Step Towards Self-Reliance, Dr Sunita Chauhan, Subject Matter Specialist at KVK, ICAR-CICR Nagpur, demonstrated the preparation of turmeric pickle, turmeric powder, and wood apple jelly, highlighting their medicinal value and market potential.

As part of the Paramparagat Krishi Vikas Yojana, Dr Sunita Chauhan trained and educated the farmers. This hands-on training session was aimed at empowering rural communities by promoting income generation through agro-based enterprises.
